

Drug-related arrests made on DNREC Division of Fish & Wildlife-managed property by Fish & Wildlife Natural Resources Police

FREDERICA – DNREC Fish & Wildlife Natural Resources Police arrested a Kent County woman and man on May 12, for multiple criminal and drug-related charges at the Division of Fish & Wildlife-managed Coursey Pond near Frederica.

Kenyanna Suarez, 31, of Magnolia, was charged with one count each of: criminal impersonation; civil possession or consumption of marijuana, personal-use quantity, by age 21 or older; and possession of drug paraphernalia not marijuana-related. Suarez was taken into custody on outstanding warrants for violation of probation and arraigned at Kent County Justice of the Peace Court 7 in Dover. She was then committed to the Baylor Women's Correctional Institution in New Castle and held without bond.

Brett Evans, 54, of Frederica, was charged with one count each of: civil possession or consumption of marijuana, personal-use quantity, by age 21 or older; civil possession of marijuana-related drug paraphernalia; and driving with a suspended or revoked license. Evans was issued a criminal summons and released, pending a future court appearance.
